SPRING IS HERE:

"I am going to try and pay attention to the spring. I am going to look around at all the flowers, and look up at the hectic trees. I am going to close my eyes and listen."

~Anne Lamott

"Spring is nature's way of saying, 'Let's Party!'"

~Robin Williams

SERVICES

- March 3rd Reverend Bryan Fulwider, co-founder of the WMFE weekly radio show, "Friends Talking Faith with The Three Wise Guys," will present, "Getting Unstuck." He will help us look at how the introduction of novelty into any system that is emotionally or organizationally stuck can move things forward to create new opportunities and possibilities for the individual, its members, or other parts of the group.
- March 10th Rick de Yampert returns to present "Crows and Ravens: Birds of Myth and Magic," a lecture and slide show featuring his bird photos which will explore how the religions, myths and legends of many cultures have included the crow and raven.
- March 17th One of our longtime "snowbirds", Charlie Smith returns to present "Wrongology." He will touch on why we can't always get things right, or "Living in the Margin of Error." For three millennia or more we have studied this question in an attempt to prevent error and we still haven't solved the problem.
- March 24th Member and past Treasurer Cathy Lowenstein will present "Justice Across Borders." For thousands of Central Americans making the dangerous journey north to escape gang violence, gender-based assault, and increased militarization, the road away from danger is paved with injustices. The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) has chosen Justice Across Borders as the theme for Justice Sunday 2019.
- March 31st Morris Sullivan, Sensei for the Volusia Buddhist Fellowship, a popular speaker returns to present the "Growing Season: Redemption, Renewal, Rebirth." These are all the ways to begin again, to give ourselves or others a second chance, a way to set aside the mistakes of the past and start off in a new direction. In his message, Sensei Sullivan will talk about the Buddha's teachings on second chances.
